Jenny Kae Parks

Scrappy AND Happy? Scrap Therapy for the Reluctant!

Join Jenny Kae, nationally published designer and instructor, as she tells us about her scrappy quilt journey.

Jenny has a theory about scrap quilts and quilters. She surmises that there are two kinds of quilters in this world, those who hate scrap quilts and those who love them. This presentation is about Jenny's journey from scrap loather to scrap lover. At the end of this amazing talk, she will ask you to leave hate behind and learn to love again! Check out her website at www.jennykaequilts.com A workshop, 'Fast, Scrappy Modern Blocks' will be offered Monday morning, November 2, 2020.
