

LNCQ General Meeting Monday, August 1, 2016

Welcome: Eunice introduced the 5 guests. There were 28 members at the meeting.

Eunice spoke about the new location of our LNCQ's meetings, using the Poudre Valley REA building, located on the corner of Hwy 392 and Fairgrounds Ave. (south) at the CR 5/392 intersection. The use of the building is free for our group; it has good air conditioning and excellent lighting. There were several positive comments from the audience.

Show & Tell: Kristine introduced our 2 show & tell ladies. Eileen Maelzer quilted a large size civil war fabric top. The top was given to LNCQ. Eunice and Julie Chantry offered to work with Eileen to find an organization which is in need of a beautiful large quilt for their fundraiser.

Charity Quilts: There was a table full of quilts made or finished by LNCQ members. They will all be donated to our list of organizations who can benefit from LNCQ charity quilts.

Announcements:

Community Service Quilting Bee will be Monday, September 12 at the Quilter's Stash in Windsor from 10:00 a.m. - 3:00 p.m. Bring your sewing machine and quilting supplies. Come sew for a few hours or spend the day sewing and being with friends. Bring your lunch and drinks.

Monday, October 3 will be the LNCQ bus trip (in place of our regular LNCQ meeting) to Lyons. Sign up by contacting Sissy Young, sissygampy@gmail.com 970 472-0338. The fee is $25 (and $20 will be refunded to you when you board the bus.) Locations for bus pick up are in newsletter or Sissy would discuss with you.

Monday, December 5th will be our Holiday meeting. It will be a luncheon held at The Highland Meadows Golf Course. More information will be coming soon.

Monday, February 6, 2017 meeting will be Sandra Clemens. It will be a morning program with a workshop following the meeting at the REA building.

Monday, March 6, 2017 will be a presentation by Ann Loveless, Landscape Art Quilts. More information to come about this program.

April 20, 21, 22 and 23, 2017 will be the LNCQ retreat held at Little America in Cheyenne, Wyoming.

Monday, May 1, 2017 LNCQ meeting will be Yellow Creek Designs of Pearl City, IL. Jackie Galbrith, owner of Quilter's Dream in Loveland, reached out to LNCQ to see if we would be interested in partnering with her store to bring Yellow Creek Designs to Northern Colorado. May 2 a workshop will be offered at Quilter's Dream in Loveland.

Program: Eunice introduced Torie Anderson who did a wonderful slide show of her family's history of quilting. She shared her quilts and the story of 8 generations of her family quilts. Her daughter, Angie showed her amazing quilts too with the excellent decorative stitching.

Meeting was adjourned at 8:30 p.m.

Respectively submitted,

Recording Secretary
